*The earth
is cloaked in silver,
And the moon's
vener of light
Makes every tree
and frozen lake Gleam on this silver night.*

Dear Linda,

It was nice talking to you the other evening. Linda. Thank you for calling.

Cindy and Ron's wedding was nice. Several people were there along with people in the program.

My understanding now is they are not going to have a live band for New Years. I'm sure many others know more about it than I do.

Perhaps I'll get to see you during the holidays when you visit your sister.

The Stagle meeting has moved also to the S. R. S. building. Went for part of the meeting Sat. night.

Wishing you a Happy Holiday Season.

Love
Bernie L.
