

My Wishes for You. SISTER

The love and friendship
a sister gives are priceless.

—Carrie Spencer York

Not many sisters have your flair
For spreading happiness,
Or show that special warmth and love
You naturally express...
That's why your day should be the kind
That's happy through and through,
And filled with all you're hoping for —
The kind I'm wishing you!

Happy Birthday

I love you,

Jeri
