The earth
is cloaked in silver,
And the moon's
vener of light
Makes every tree
and frozen lake
Gleam on this
silver night.
