STÉPHANE MALLARMÉ

Greetings of the season
and best wishes for the new year.

*With thanks from all of us for all you do.
The pink scarf reminded me of you.*

*Happy Holidays!
