known each other.

Thanks for the bath towels and washcloths. And I think I will take your suggestion and exchange them to match the colors in my bathroom. I've received several mauve pink towels so I will try to find burgandy to offset the color and it will make it complete.

Hope all will continue to go well for you. "Trust in the Lord and He will bring it to pass" is the promise I hold onto these days and I'm sure it can work for you also. May God bless you always.
With love,

Linda,

I really enjoyed seeing you at the shower. These past months have been busy for Mark and I in completing wedding plans (I don't know how people do the planning in less time!) and I'm sure you and all are still continuing to grow in your commitment and through difficult times. Thanks for being a part of our celebration. And I will, after the wedding, call more often because I would like to nurture our growing friendship. You've been special and are a special person in the time we've
