

You may not know how important you've been in my life--

I want you to know you've done something for me that's really made a difference.
You've taught me so much, in so many beautiful, special ways.
From you I've learned things far more important than any knowledge found in books.
I've learned and grown from your example, from your encouragement, and most of all,
from your special way
of being you.

The things I've learned from you, the ways you've helped me grow, are treasures I'll keep with me always--- gifts that can never be used up or diminished by time or distance.
And that's just one reason, among so very many,
that you'll always be special to me!

I cant add much more! Love Zfa!
