

*Happy Birthday
to a Very Special Person*

*Some people are special for things that they do, Still others are special for joys that they give,
Some people are special
for kindness they show
And for making our lives such a pleasure to live...*

And then, there are people so nice through and through That they're all this and more – special people like you!

Wishing You Happiness
Today and Always

Dear Linda,

I've had your card for quite some time - then when it came time to send it, I had no ^{new} address so didn't get it sent - Shirley gave me your new address tonight so I will send it on now. Hope you had a special day, Linda - you are always so thoughtful of us & Hugh wants to thank you & Shirley for the delicious Prime Rib - and since I got taken out too, I want to thank you. It's so good to have someone to FORGET ME NOT enjoy me again. There were times when we felt so alone. Now we'll have you & Shirley to enjoy! He just got back from eating & Shirley has gone home - I'm in my gown and robe and ready to relax. Not used to this night

Love & Blessing
