

GET WELL
SOON

Hi Linda,

Thank you for calling. Sounds like you have things organized. More is revealed to us sometimes its by hard knocks. That's my experience - I'm not humble by nature situations happen to move me along.

Have been told today I need to do some other things besides NA. so will start looking at different areas change doesn't come easy to me but strength comes from my God. Miss to see you the other day. You are a very busy woman -

Wishing you the best in regard to your life & healing.

You're much too nice to be sick—

Please hurry and get well soon!!
