

Thinking of You

I still believe that miracles can happen every day, I still think angels sometimes come to wipe our tears away.
When night seems darkest,
I believe we'll see a light shine clear,
and when the storm is gone,
I'm sure a rainbow will appear.

AMANDA BRADLEY

Dear Linda

Thinking of you and wishing you a much brighter tomorrow.

With Love,
Kay Farrell

I'm sorry to hear of your fall (while you are mending). I hear you are watercolor painting.
Maybe you can paint a rainbow - Kay
