

Dearest Linda,

It has been a joy having you as such a dear friend during our time together at Friends. Thank you for the support, the chats, lunches, and so much more.

May you and Charles be blessed in many ways in your new journey. You are an amazing woman and mother, with so many talents. Your love for goodness all around is so evident. Never lose the light which shines in your beautiful eyes.

Blessings always,
Lisa