

THANK YOU

Dear Linda ~

4/12/2021

Thank you for sharing Cennie's chickens with me. Still can't believe you did that, so generous of you. I haven't decided where they will go - want to put them in the kitchen but have tentative plans to repaint & so need to wait a bit.

Also, your wisdom shared with me on Saturday stays with me. You told me "you are not alone" when I confess my struggles about managing things by myself. Just hearing you say that has strengthened something in me to keep reaching out. You are a trusted friend & supporter to me - I appreciate you!

With warm hugs,
Jane
